INCIDENT BULLETIN — April 2016

037. Chair-O-Planes collapse

It is reported that the Mundo Divertido amusement park in Tijuana, Mexico, was closed down following an accident in which a Chair-O-Planes style ride, the Sillas Voladoras, collapsed, injuring at least 12 people. It was the second time this year a ride at the park had malfunctioned, causing injuries. This would appear to be a mechanical/structural failure.
