

NAFLIC

National Association For Leisure Industry Certification

Standards & Related Documents Committee

INCIDENT BULLETIN — February 2017

053. Ferris Wheel fire

A Ferris Wheel at a new park in Bangkok, Thailand, caught fire in April. According to reports, park officials said no customers were in the burning carriage and in fact no-one was on the ride at the time, with operations having been stopped due to heavy storms, in line with normal safety procedures. The fire started shortly after a thunderstorm. No injuries were reported.

<http://metro.co.uk/2016/04/30/ferris-wheel-carriage-catches-fire-in-thailand-theme-park-5852135/>