Swing chair ride fatality

A report has been received of a woman being killed and another seriously injured after their swing chair fell off a fairground ride in France.

According to the report, a 24-year-old woman died after she was thrown about 15m from a suspended seat as it swung around a carousel in Firminy, Loire.

Emergency services attended the scene, but the woman was later pronounced dead. A second woman, aged 20, was taken to hospital after also being badly injured in the incident.
